

Roundtable on Financing Energy Efficiency and Climate Change Resilience in the Building Sector

20th of April 2023. 9:00 - 12:00

Round hall of the Croatian National Bank, Zagreb

www.smafin.eu

AGENDA

Moderator: Nika Marjanović Zulim, HRT

09:00 - 10:00	Gathering of participants and registration Coffee and networking
10:00 - 10:30	Opening of the conference and opening remarks
	dr. sc. Sandra Švaljek, Deputy Governor, Croatian National Bank Sladana Ćosić, Head of Office, European Investment Bank in Croatia
	dr.sc. Julije Domac, Director, REGEA
10:30 - 10:45	Central banks and climate change dr. sc. Marko Škreb, international economic consultant, former governor of the Croatian National Bank
10:45 - 11:00	Transformative climate activities in cities - from planning to financing Miljenko Sedlar, Deputy Director, REGEA
11:00 - 11:15	Investing in energy efficiency measures in buildings - an example of connecting energy and climate policy at the level of the City of Zagreb Ana Pavičić - Kaselj, Head of the City Office for Economy, Environmental Sustainability and Strategic Planning, City of Zagreb
11:15 - 12:00	Panel: How to finance measures of energy efficiency and increasing resistance to climate change in the building sector
	Louise White, ELENA coordinator, European Investment Bank
	Toma Pasarić, head of client group, Erste bank Croatia Dalibor Dakić, Director, Promo21 d.o.o.
	Hrvoje Maras, Chief economist, REGEA
12:00 - 12:15	Discussion and conclusions of the Round Table